

Queen's Concierge Care, LLC is an equal opportunity employer committed to complying with all applicable anti-discrimination laws. We will not discriminate in employment opportunities or practices on the basis of race, color, religion, disability, national origin, genetic information, sex (including pregnancy), age, sexual orientation, gender (including gender identity and expression), marital status, protected veterans status, citizenship status, or any other characteristic protected by applicable law. In accordance with Title I of the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, our Company provides reasonable accommodation to qualified individuals with disabilities who are employees or applicants for employment, unless to do so would cause undue hardship.

Our policy of nondiscrimination in employment applies, without limitation, to recruitment, hiring, compensation, promotions, transfers, discipline, demotions, terminations, layoffs, access to benefits and training, and all other aspects of employment, as well as to selection of volunteers and vendors, our referral process, and the provision of our services. In addition, our policy of non-discrimination is intended to extend to visitors to our facilities and all of our stakeholders.

We believe that respectful, professional conduct furthers our mission, promotes productivity, minimizes disputes, and enhances our reputation. We are committed to providing an inclusive and welcoming environment for all members of our staff, customers, volunteers, subcontractors, and vendors and we expect every employee to show respect for all of our colleagues, customers, volunteers, subcontractors, and vendors. Harassment by co-workers, supervisors, or any third parties is a form of misconduct that destroys our work environment and undermines the integrity of the employment relationship. We are committed to providing a work environment that is free of unlawful discrimination, including harassment that is based on any legally protected status, and will not tolerate any form of discrimination or harassment that violates this policy.

Employees with questions or concerns about any type of discrimination in the workplace are encouraged to bring these issues to the attention of the Manager of the Company. Employees can voice concerns and submit reports to the Manager of the Company without fear of retaliation. Any of our employees who are found to be engaging in any type of unlawful discrimination will be subject to disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment.
